Rubella (German measles), the mental and physicalcrippler of unborn babies, caused 30,000 fetal deaths and 20,000 birth defects in the year 1964-65. With no change in the present number of susceptible children, another epidemic is expected in 1971-72. "Stop Rubella Sunday" is the Bay Area Health association's answer to this terrible prediction.

Although no charge is made for the vaccination, your dollar donation, if you can afford it, will help to defray other costs of the clinic.

Australian Rotary Guests

Albany-Berkeley Rotarians Host Australian Executives

They talked to Debbie Reynolds at Lake Tahoe.

They were guests at two PG&E lodges.

They fished, visited universities, colleges and various industrial plants, were guests in the homes of Rotarians, exchanged information with Americans as to differences and similarities between Australia and the U.S.

Six personable young business executives and a governor's representative from Rotary district 267 in Australia were "exchanged" with District 516 in California, which includes Albany, in an eight-week program which began Aug. 31. After four days in New Zealand, three in Fiji and a visit to Hawaii, they arrived in Oakland Sept. 8.

They were beginning their fifth week of the tour when they were guests at a joint Albany-Berkeley Rotary club meeting Oct. 6. Before coming here, they went to Davis, Chico, Red Bluff, Redding and Weaverville with a variety of side trips, including Tahoe, where Debbie Reynolds was performing. She visited with them after the show.

Albany Rotary President James B. Turner was in charge of the local program. He and Rotarians Marsh Diehl, Bud Read and Chuck Silveira later conducted the visitors on a visit to Albany's Regional Lab, where they were shown the complete wool processing plant supervised by Dr. Harold Lundgren, who is internationally known for his non-shrink treatment of wool yarns.

Two of the seven visitors had been to the U.S. before. All were looking forward to a visit to Disneyland.

The six executives pictured above were selected from among 60 applicants. Professionally, they include the owner of several businesses, an accountant, a metallurgist, a soil conservationist, clerk of petty sessions, coroner, and a deputy town clerk. All are married.

The Group Study Exchange Award is an educational activity of the Rotary Foundation. Young men selected must be between 25 and 35, have good moral character, held in high regard in their community and not related to a Rotarian. A group from this district visited in Australia last spring.

Among hosts for the young men during their stay here was Clark Armstrong of Cataview, who with his wife entertained Peter McIntosh and Collin Elliott.

Another Light Council Agenda

Albany City Council met last night because Monday was a holiday.

There were only two communications on the agenda. The first was from Administrative Officer James B. Turner and Chief of Police Ralph Jensen regarding a stop sign at the Pierce street on ramp. The second was a request by Soroptimists of Albany to designate October as Founders' Month.

Up for second reading was an ordinance amending the Albany City Code to outlaw use of trailers as living accommodations on city streets (see legal today).

How to beat the rising cost of winter.

1. Replace filters. Forced air furnace filters trap dust and keep your air clean, but they should be changed every six months to allow maximum heat flow.

2. Close damper when your fireplace is not in use and stop heat escaping up your chimney. Close drapes and stop up to 16% of heat loss.

3. Weatherstrip and insulate. Keep cold air outside with insulation and by plugging heat leaks around doors and windows with weatherstripping.

4. Check heating system now. Have your furnace man make sure your heating system is in safe working order before the first cold snap.

5. Leave thermostat set. Agree on a healthy thermostat setting and leave it there. If chilly, put on a sweater.

Winter PG&E bills are bigger than summer bills because you need more heating, more lighting, eat more hot meals, and use your appliances more.

Average household bills for gas and electricity increased 35.3% over the 1960 decade. But considering the fact that average household energy use rose 50%, PG&E service is your best household buy—summer or winter.

Dellums Party Set Oct. 20

U.S. Senator George McGovern of South Dakota will be guest of honor at a cocktail party for Ronald V. Dellums, Democratic candidate for the Congress, from 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 20, at Hs Lordships on the Berkeley Marina.

The event will be sponsored by Friends of Ron Dellums, a group of 250 women supporters of the candidate, Universities National Anti-War Fund and the Berkeley Coalition.

Donation will be $5. On Oct. 4, U.S. Senator Fred Harris of Oklahoma came to Berkeley and warmly supported Dellums as, in his opinion, one of three candidates across the nation capable of uniting a broad range of people ranging from poverty-stricken blacks, whites and brown, red and yellow people to blue collar workers, the 40 per cent of the working population defined by Dellums as earning $5,000 to $10,000 a year.

CARL MacWILLIAMS, who is always first to report in the Albany Lions Lampoon of those who are ailing among us, hopefully will allow a Times scoop on his own hospitalization. At this writing, he is a patient at Alta Bates hospital. No official word as of now, but he may have to have major surgery.

UNDERSTAND All Miss Flame candidates and their mothers will be guests at Security Savings and Loan Friday afternoon. Ozell Griffin is arranging the party. Manager Bernice Boyd, who suffered a heart attack several weeks ago, is now walking 40 blocks a day.

DURING THE Tri-City fire show at the Plaza Friday evening, one of the El Cerrito firemen dashed into Kirby's—to get a match to light a demonstration fire!

and enjoyable reception in Albany. A banjo band provided lively music and they had brought along a pretty little trick named Hazel to do the Charleston. Lew loves to dance and couldn't resist joining in, proving he can do a mean Charleston. Throughout the reception, the "floor show" was repeated periodically to the delight of the large crowd.

SHERM gave City Attorney Larry Saler, cop chairman of the party, a nice promotion—introduced him as "Attorney General."

A LADY who obviously had little faith in our classified ads paid to run her piano for sale ad for two weeks. She came in last week to get a refund for the second week, happily reporting the piano was sold at 8 a.m. the morning the issue carrying the first ad came out.

CALL HER LUCKY — Olga Bier of Albany won $819 on a TV quiz by correctly identifying the tune "Clap Your Hands." In a few days, her phone rang and she learned she had won a bag of groceries in Super Stop Market's anniversary celebration.

IT'S MENTIONED in the Senior Citizens column, but a second item here won't hurt. If you live alone, Herrick Hospital volunteers provide a Tele-Care service in which you receive a daily telephone call from someone outside your home. This includes Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. If there is no answer between 9 a.m. and noon, the volunteer alerts someone who lives nearby to check on your welfare. To register, call 845-0130, extension 397. There is no charge for this fine service. We have booklets explaining the program here at the Times.

During his visit, Becker conferred with President Jim Turner and Secretary Marsh Diehl on matters of club administration and plans for future activities. He delivered a speech entitled "Let's Bridge the Gaps."

Becker is a member and past president of El Sobrante Rotary club and was elected to his present office at the International Convention in Atlanta, Ga., last May. Mayor Call Named to Committee

At the October meeting of Alameda County Mayors' conference, Albany Mayor H. F. Call was named to the nominating committee for selection of a delegate to Metropolitan Transportation commission.

Mayors endorsed Proposition 1 (Clean Water Bill) on the November ballot but split on endorsement of Proposition 18 which would authorize use of highway users taxes for mass transit. Albany's was one of three no votes to seven yes, one abstention and two cities not present.

There was another discussion of extension of Bay Area Rapid Transit. Directors Harry Lange and Arnold Anderson were there to express their feelings and reluctance to be too provincial. Anderson said originally the district included nine counties, then five and now it is three. He said directors who have been on the board a long time can't help thinking regionally. Lange said there is a $3.1 billion transit bill on the President's desk and BART expects to share in it. "They may say go to the San Francisco airport," he said.

Anderson added the district will run a bus feeder line to areas demanding it.

Richard Clark of Albany, Mayors' conference-appointed BART director, said the key to all discussions is a strong buy-in agreement and annexation process. San Mateo county has four votes and would have something to say about it. The battle, he stressed, is about laying the groundwork.

The program was about Progress and Problems of East Bay Regional Park district with General Manager Richard Trudeau as speaker. He showed slides of the park system.

Union City was host for the Oct. 7 meeting. The November meeting will be in Oakland so mayors may attend the testimonial dinner for Retiring Alameda County Supervisor Lee Sweeney on Nov. 4 in Goodman Hall, Jack London Square.

Police Lineup Of Softball Stars Reported

Barring injury, last-minute trading or a riot at one of the preschools, Albany Police department's lineup for tomorrow's big softball game with San Pablo has been released by Player-Coach Sgt. Archie Stirling.

Facing the squad from San Pablo at 4:30 tomorrow at the diamond in Memorial Park will be Chief Ralph Jensen, Inspector Mel Boyd, Sgt. Jim Harris, Stirling, Sgt. Glenn Thompson and Officers John Megonnigil, George Phillips, Zack Hartman, John Ford, Darrell Cook, Dusty Clark and Bernard Johnson.

According to Stirling, San Pablo police were most disrespectful in answering Albany's challenge. Not only did they refer to the challenge as a "suicide request," they referred to Albany's finest as "fat, sloppy, inept porkers." The San Pablo stars requested that the ambulance stand by and that the Fire Department have a rescuator at second base in the event an Albany policeman gets that far.

The letter, in fact, was such a triumph in unprintable comments that someone has stolen it from the bulletin board. Confident the theft is an inside job, Albany police have dusted the station for fingerprints and are continuing their investigation.

The public is invited to attend the game, which is all in fun.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

By Margaret Longpre
Our ecology drive has been going fairly well. Last week, Elmer Bouchet, who collects material that comes to the center, said all he could do to move it was to ask if I think it would accept help if it were available.

Nearly 60 people attended our Sunday lunch. We are looking forward to the next one, possibly the first Sunday of the month. If the good attendance continues, it might become a regular thing. Reservations must be made, but the public is invited for 75 cents.

The Center will have a "Mini-Sale" on Oct. 29. We already have a variety of treasures. "You name it. We have it." Drop in. You may find just what you are looking for.

On Oct. 27, a bus will leave at 9 a.m. for a two-day trip to Cal-Neva. On Oct. 19, the whist party will be held. Well attended with nice prizes and refreshments, will be held.

Herick Memorial hospital has established a service whereby if you live alone, they will call you once a day. If you are ill or otherwise need help, they will alert a neighbor or relative. If you desire this service, register with Herick hospital.

For more information on "Tele-Care," pick up a booklet at the Albany Times or Senior Center. Travel slides will be shown and refreshments served on Oct. 26.

American Indian Troop Available

Paul Sundown of 922 Pomona Ave., is a new Albany resident, who also happens to be one of three Southwestern Indians available for a program of authentic American Indian dances.

The group is appearing Saturday, Oct. 17, at 8 p.m. in Oliver Hall of St. Mary's college in Moraga, but he hopes to appear before local groups, preferably Friday or Saturday. Sundown himself is available at other times, although he is enrolled at the University of California in public relations and communications. He will entertain at the Jack Healy reception at the Larry Baum home Saturday, Oct. 24.

Other members of the troop are Gervase Peso of Alameda, a Mescalero Apache, and Jake White Cloud of Oakland, who sings with the group and is a Pueblo, as is Sundown.

Among dances they perform in authentic costume are the shield dance, fast and slow war dances and the Indian athletic hoop dance, which Sundown says is where the hula hoop came from.

Those interested in the program may contact him at 527-1799.

Albany Pre-School Opens For 33rd Consecutive Year

Albany Pre-School, unique in its sponsored city Recreation Department status, has opened its 33rd year of infant participation in group child play under the direction of Mrs. Nell Curran.

Assisted by WPA funds, the school originally was held at Memorial Park, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Quiggle. The waiting list, a certainty even at present, necessitated moving to larger quarters and the school was moved to its present location at 850 Masonic Ave.

The philosophy of the Pre-School developed at that time by the late Ed Howell, Director of Recreation, has been maintained. He held to the theory that the school was not an educational institution for the young two to five year olds, that it should not even infringe on the learning processes of elementary kindergarten, but was in reality a "play school." Geared toward healthy development socially, emotionally, and physically through adequate play opportunities under helpful supervision, the small child can experience an enriched daily program with materials difficult for the crowded or individual confines of home environment. Introduction into group play gives the child an awakening to the socialization pattern important in the civilization of today.

This worthwhile philosophy is still working at the school. The facilities have been modernized, enlarged, and the enrollment has increased. Although emphasis for youngsters has been "play," for the cooperative mother, education does play its part. Upon enrollment of the child, the mother agrees to participation in the actual working of the school, she takes classes in pre-school techniques, and she is part of an organization in assisting in the maintenance and direction of the school.

The school has always prided itself that it is not a dumping ground for the pre-school aged child but is a cooperating project which parents, community and Albany city government support and the many years it has been a going concern prove its value.

Preschool classes for children from two to four years of age are held from nine a.m. to noon; children from four years to kindergarten age attend from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. The school is open five days weekly, except for holidays observed by the city.

The school, open to all families within the Albany city limits, is now receiving applications for coming semesters.

Note of Thanks

The family of the late Charlie Thompson, Jr., of 1081 Neilson St., wish to thank their many friends and neighbors who have been so thoughtful, helpful and kind during the time when they were most needed. Thank, thank, thank you.

To the Albany Police department, we wish to also express our sincere appreciation for their concern and attention they gave our home during our absence.

To the many friends who sent words of condolence and comfort during our bereavement that we were unable to acknowledge because of no return addresses, we also thank you most sincerely.

Romo-Hern Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Hern (Lorraine Romo) —Luoma Photo.

Lorraine Dee Romo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Romo of Santa Fe Avenue, became the bride of Timothy Stephen Hern, son of the late Mrs. Helen L. Hern, in early afternoon rites at St. Ambrose church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin and chiffon, which she had made herself. It was of empire design with A-line skirt, sheer sleeves, round neck and applied with chantilly lace and seed pearls. Her shoulder length veil fell from a headpiece of lily-of-the-valley and sheer petals, made by Mrs. Peter Googins. She wore a diamond pendant, a Christmas gift from the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of gladioli, sala leaves and leather fern.

Maid of honor was Miss Lynn Nunes of Albany, who wore pink. Bridesmaids were Wendy Hoggatt of Albany, lavender; Kathy Thomas of Berkeley, yellow, and Lorrie Otis of Richmond, blue. They wore gowns of bonded lace with scoop necklines, short sleeves and empire waists, pleated front and back. Each gown was trimmed with velvet ribbon of a darker shade at the waist and the girls carried cascades of elegance carnations of the same shade as the ribbon.

Lance Schroeder of Albany was best man. Head usher was the Later in the afternoon, members joined the Olsons at Cazema Lodge, in Cazadero, for a real old time German dinner and some accordion music.

Ruth Sutherland, president of the club, commented on how many beautiful spots there are in California.

Meuti-Savage Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Savage (Nadine Meuti)

Rites at St. John's Catholic church in Felton united in marriage Nadine Marie Meuti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armando J. Meuti of Evelyn Avenue, and Daniel Marc Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Savage of Boulder Creek, former Albany resident.
